Exams Policy

Introduction

The Exams Policy seeks to outline the policy of Albemarle College towards internal mock exams and external A Level and GCSE exams.

The centre is committed to ensuring that the exams management and administration process is run effectively and efficiently. This exam policy will ensure that:

- all aspects of the centre exam process is documented and other relevant exams-related policies, procedures and plans are signposted
- the workforce is well informed and supported
- all centre staff involved in the exams process clearly understand their roles and responsibilities
- all exams and assessments are conducted in accordance with JCQ and awarding body regulations, guidance and instructions, thus ensuring that

“... the integrity and security of the examination/assessment system is maintained at all times and is not brought into disrepute” [JCQ General regulations for approved centres¹]

- exam candidates understand the exams process and what is expected of them.

This policy is reviewed annually to ensure ways of working in the centre are accurately reflected and that exams and assessments are conducted to current JCQ (and awarding body) regulations, instructions and guidance.

Mock Exams

Students must sit monthly mock exams to be held at the start of October, November, December, January and February

Students will further sit a full set of mock exams during the 'Easter Mocks'. Two weeks are set aside for students to experience a simulation of what the real external exams will be like.

If students underperform in the Easter Mocks, the Curriculum Managers reserve the right to withdraw students from external exams. This will be done in consultation with parents, relevant teachers and the student concerned. The student's past performance in the monthly mocks will be taken into account, as will their track record in the monthly reports (which are issued after each Monthly mock cycle).

Non-Attendance of Monthly Mocks

Mock exams are an important part of the student's learning and it is essential that the student attends and completes ALL Mock Exams.

Should a student be absent for a Mock Exam, they must recognise that the date and time of the Mock will NOT be re-arranged and their grade will be entered as Absent.

If you fail to attend a mock exam without adequate explanation from your parent/guardian, the following actions will be taken:

A verbal warning from the subject teacher.

A meeting with the Curriculum Manager/Personal Tutor will be arranged.

The student will be given his/her final warning.

Repeated non-attendance in Mock Exams will result in the student not being entered for national examinations.

Study Leave

Study Leave is determined at the discretion of the Principals. Historically AS students have been authorised to have study leave during the period of their AS exams, normally from the second week in May to the end of the first week in June.

2Year and 1Year students (both A level and GCSE) must attend all lessons up to the end of the A level or GCSE programme, which ends the Friday before the May Half Term.

2Year or 1Year students who have external exams during this period may miss morning lessons when their exam is in the afternoon session. However they must attend afternoon lessons if their exam was held in the morning.

Revision Lessons

Teaching Staff may request Revision Lessons during the AS study leave period for AS students.

Revision lessons may be requested for 2YRA students during the May Half Term and in the first two weeks in June.

As there will be high demand for rooms, revisions lessons will be timetabled between 430 and 630 during term time weekdays.

Appealing Against Exam Results

In the event that you request re-mark, please note the following procedure:

- a) At first instance, we will request a 'Return of Script' from the exam board that will be marked/analysed by your subject tutor
- b) Should the subject tutor feel there is scope for a successful re-mark, your Curriculum Manager will authorise a re-mark through the exams office

Appealing Against Controlled Assessment

In the event that you request re-moderation, please note the following procedure:

- a) The subject tutor will assess the moderator's report submitted with results
- b) Should the subject tutor feel there is scope for a successful re-moderation, your Curriculum Manager will authorise a re-moderation through the exams office

Guidelines for Students Sitting External Exams

Students Must Check Their Statements Of Entry:

Check your statement of entry carefully so you know your exam dates and times. Please inform the Exam Office (Room 8) of any mistakes on your statement of entry as soon as possible. The College does not take responsibility if you are not entered for an exam and have not checked the accuracy of your Statement of Entry.

Students Must Check The Exam Times:

Students must be at the exam location by 8.30am for AM exams. Students must be at the exam location by 1pm for PM exams. Students who are more than 30 minutes late may not be allowed to sit their exams.

Bring The Right Equipment:

A-level language students sitting listening exams must bring their own CD players and headphones. Mathematics and Science students must bring calculators. The college will not provide equipment to students during an exam. It is your responsibility to bring the correct equipment.

Black Pens Only:

Students can only write in exams with black pens. Bring a spare pen in case one runs out of ink.

Mobile Phones/Mp3 Players/Headphones:

Mobiles, MP3 and MP4 players and headphones must be handed in to invigilators before sitting exams.

Students Suspected of Cheating

An investigation will be undertaken if an invigilator suspects a student of cheating. The invigilator will make a written statement and a meeting will be called with the Parents and the Curriculum Manager, the invigilator and student. If the student is deemed guilty they will be withdrawn from all public external exams and the Exam Boards will be notified.

Please Be Quiet When Leaving Exams:

Once finished leave the exam quietly. Do not talk loudly outside the exam room. Show respect to students still sitting exams.
